RUSKIN HOSTING WINTER GUARD FESTIVAL AT HMJHS FEB 9

Thirty schools from across Missouri and Kansas are coming to the Ruskin High School Winter Guard Festival Saturday, Feb. 9 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. inside the gymnasium of Hickman Mills Junior High School (9010 Old Santa Fe Rd.). Schools perform in a variety of disciplines including flags, sabers and dance.

"Winter Guard is a sport that's equal parts performance and entertainment," said Brenda Snorgrass, Ruskin's guard director. "It is a pageantry of equipment, dance, drama and color."

Admission is $7 for adults and $5 for students and seniors. Children 5 and under are free. Snorgrass said regardless of how much you pay for your ticket, winter guard performances are well worth the price of admission.

"Winter guard is a special place for young people to grow, learn, laugh and meet challenges as a group," she said. "Many on Ruskin's Winter Guard team received their earliest training in discipline and self-awareness here in the school district.

"You will be amazed at the talent of these young people."

Participating schools include Lee's Summit, Lee's Summit North, Blue Springs South, Blue Valley (Kan.) and Ruskin.
