Why I Chose Education as My Career of Choice

After graduating from college with a communication degree and still not knowing what I really wanted to do, I joined a year long program where I was taught the Bible and then volunteered every afternoon at different places. One time, I went with a fellow student to HIS place of volunteering, a maximum security prison. We taught the bible to men prisoners who later told my friend that I had a gift of teaching. That really surprised me, but I knew I enjoyed it when I did it. So, I went back to school for a year and got my teaching license. Since then, I've taught in San Diego , Colorado, Uganda, Africa (5 yrs) and Kansas City.

Personal Interests

In my spare time, my husband (32 years married!) and I have a Bible School in Kenya that we helped build and we continue to support our good friend who is running it; I take classes for my masters in TESOL (Teaching English as a Second Language); I spend time with God and my grown kids (we have 5)—mostly I love going out to coffee with any of them; And I lead a small group twice a month.
