Course Description:

Spanish 110 is a dual-credit course. Students taking the course for college credit receive 3 credit hours for Spanish 110 through UMKC. Students will expand their vocabulary and learn complex grammatical structures used in the language. A high level of fluency is achieved through speaking, listening, reading and writing through the use of a variety of authentic texts. Students are exposed to a wide variety of Spanish-speaking countries and will expand their awareness of the customs and the peoples of the target language.

I. Course Policies: Proper Use of Technology

- PHOTOS, & RECORDING VIDEO OR AUDIO
  - Creating a video or audio recording in the school setting is prohibited unless being done so for specific curricular reasons as determined by school officials.

- If a student has a circumstance affecting their attendance it is their responsibility to inform the instructor.
- More than 7 absences in 1 class will result in no credit for the course.
- See the Ruskin High School Student Handbook for more detail.

Tardy Policy:

- Please arrive on time for class. Students who habitually disturb the class by talking, arriving late, etc., will have consequences as outlined in the Student Handbook.
- Additionally, excessive tardiness will result in a reduction in the student's participation grade.

Academic Conduct Policy:

- The use of online translators is PROHIBITED during exams.
- The use of Google Translate or online translators when not permitted will result in a zero.
- Please refer to the student handbook, which governs all student behavior even when specifics are not mentioned in a syllabus. An alternative is to call specific attention to plagiarism, perhaps even defining it for your students.
- Academic dishonesty in any form will not be tolerated. If you are uncertain as to what constitutes academic dishonesty, please consult Student Handbook.

Classroom Rules:

In this classroom, students are expected to respect themselves, others and classroom and student property at all times.

This can be accomplished by through four basic rules:

- Be respectful
- Be ready to learn
- Be positive
- Be your best self

Always ask yourself, "Am I creating an environment helpful to my own learning?"

VIII. Virtual Procedures and Expectations:

- Join early - up to 5 minutes before the start time of class
- To help keep background noise to a minimum, make sure you mute your microphone when you are not speaking.
- Be mindful of background noise
- When your microphone is not muted, avoid activities that could create additional noise, such as shuffling papers.
- Have your video on unless you are experiencing connection issues
- Have a plain background - avoid backlight from bright windows
- Have good lighting on your face so you can be seen clearly
- Use your real name (for professional and safety reasons)
- Position your camera properly - If you choose to use a web camera, be sure it is in a stable position and focused at eye level. Doing so helps create a more direct sense of engagement with other participants.
- Limit distractions - You can make it easier to focus on the meeting by turning off notifications, closing or minimizing running apps, and muting your smartphone.
- Avoid multitasking - You'll retain the discussion better if you refrain from replying to emails or text messages during the meeting and wait to work on that PowerPoint presentation until after the meeting ends.
- Use appropriate language at all times.
- Be sure to dress appropriately. Avoid wearing shower caps, hats, etc. Also, wear a shirt.
